Dear Ms. Reminsky:

In response to the letter of January 24, 2003 regarding the review of the 30 Post General Report
Report, we have reviewed the report and have the following response:

With regard to the filing of the required 48-hour notices for the period after the close of the books for the pre-general report until two days before the general election, we have carefully reviewed our records and believe that we did properly file each of the required 48-hour notices.

Please let me know if you have any questions or comments regarding this letter. I can be reached at (208) 395-6302.

Sincerely,

Kaye L. O'Riordan
